Author's Notes:
This takes place during Frogstomp, because who doesn't get all warm and fuzzy inside for innocent teenage romance?

Cicada cries filled the air as clouds drifted across the aerial sea. Some awful pop song was playing on the radio, but Ben was too distracted by Daniel's giggling to even care.

He leaned towards the boy; his hair smelled of the ocean from surfing together earlier. Ben's fingers parted golden waterfalls to caress the pale, damp skin within before moving closer to his coral lips. He found himself gazing into marine eyes as he sipped Daniel's drink.

"You dick, that was my cola!"

"You're beautiful, Johns."

"Yeah, and you're a git!"

They laughed as the brunette finally kissed him.
